

6 Key Facts About Fuel Fraud Which Keeps FLEET MANAGERS AWAKE AT NIGHT

2/3

of UK fleet managers think Fuel Fraud is a big issue

48%

of fleet managers think improving processes to tackle fraud could reduce their fuel cost by 5% or more with 14% believing it could be over a 10% reduction in costs.

31%

of fleet managers say that preventing fuel fraud is their biggest concern and less than half (49%) had systems in place that would allow them to monitor fraud and security issues

64%

of fleets in the UK have been a victim of fuel fraud and this only relates to those people who actually know it's taking place.

93%

of fleet managers think some of their drivers are committing fuel fraud with 41% thinking its more than 10% of their drivers.

What are the barriers that prevent fleet managers improving their chances of detecting fuel fraud:

37%

Lack of driver awareness/education

32%

Lack of time

30%

Lack of financial resources

25%

Driver by-in on the issue

20%

Lack of information

19%

Threat of fraud not being taken seriously

18%

Lack of fraud detection expertise in the industry